Orders are likewiſe given to buy 40,000 Horſes for the Army.

Dreſden, Sept. 26, N. S. M. Thulemeyer, one of his Pruſſian Majeſty's Miniſters of his Cabinet Council, and who has a chief Hand in the Diſpatch of Affairs at the Court of Berlin, came hither ſome Days ago, in his Return from Toplitz in Bohemia, where he had been for the Recovery of his Health, and it was ſuppoſed, upon his Arrival at this Place, that he was charged by the King his Maſter with the Delivery of his Letter of Recognition to King Auguſtus, but the ſaid Miniſter is gone from hence, without having mentioned the leaſt Word about it. The Palatin of Kiovia has written to this Court, that the Tartar Inhabitants of the Frontiers of Walachia, and Subjects of the Ottoman Porte, had made two Incurſions into Podlachia, and carried off ſome Hundreds of Peaſants into Slavery. The Biſhop of Poſnania is arrived here from Poland.

Dreſden, Oct. 3, N. S. This Court went on the 29th paſt from Hubertsburg to Leipſig, but will return again to Hubertsburg in a few Days, to celebrate the Birth of his Poliſh Majeſty, when the King deſigns to eſtabliſh a Military Order, the Badge of which will conſiſt of a Croſs with 8 Points, having on one Side the Picture of St. Henry, and on the other the Words Pietate & Fortitudine, hanging to a Purple coloured Ribband on the Breaſt. His Majeſty has ordered a certain Revenue to be ſet apart for the Support of this Order, and 'tis ſaid that each Knight will be allow'd a Penſion of 300 Crowns per Annum. The Number to be made at preſent is not to exceed 20. By Letters from Poland we have Advice, that the Tartars have been a third Time in the Palatinate of Podlachia; but that their General, with whom the Palatin of Kiovia had had a Conference, diſowned all thoſe People, and ſaid he ſhould be glad if they were taken and treated as Robbers.

Berlin, Oct. 2, N. S. M. Thulemeyer is returned hither from the Baths of Toplitz. Baron Brackel the Ruſſian Miniſter at this Court, received Letters Yeſterday from Petersburg which brought him Advice, that Felt Marſhal Munich had, with the principal Part of his Army, drawn near the Dnieper. That he had not however abandoned the Lines of Perecop, having left there a ſufficient Force to defend them, and at the ſame Time erected Redoubts at certain Diſtances between them and his Camp, not only to prevent any Surpriſe, but alſo to ſecure a free Communication between the Forces he had left in the ſaid Lines and his Camp. Theſe Letters add, that the Grand Vizier with his Army lyes encamped on the other Side of the Dnieper.
